1) Daniel 9:27

Daniel 9:27 He will confirm a covenant with many for one week. But in the middle of that week he will bring sacrifices and offerings to a halt. On the wing of abominations will come one who destroys, until the decreed end is poured out on the one who destroys."

"We look back 100 days to remember the educated, the complicit, and the incapacitated among the world powers governed by the law of the jungle, reminding them of an aggression that reached its peak against our path (Al-Quds) and Al-Aqsa, with the start of its actual temporal and spatial division, and the 'bringing of red cows' as an application of a detestable religious myth designed for aggression against the feelings of an entire nation in the heart of its Arab identity, and the path of its prophet (the Night Journey) and Ascension to heaven."

-Abu Abadyah (Hamas military chief)

"The implications of these developments extend beyond religious beliefs, delving into the political realm. The Israeli government, despite its professed secular stance, has exhibited a noteworthy eagerness to facilitate the entry and utilization of these red heifers, marking an extraordinary departure from standard procedures. This commitment, evident in both right-wing and left-wing governments, underscores the influence of religious considerations on state policies."

-Osama Ali. (Jordanian reporter)

The lyre played in the Holy Temple had seven strings. According to tradition, the lyre which will be played in the rebuilt Holy Temple will have ten strings. The lyre made for the Temple Institute has ten strings and its design is based on an ancient 2nd Temple era coin. Torah also refers to this as the “ten-stringed harp,” (Esor).
